

HOSPITALITY PATHWAY PROGRAM

Expand your horizons in the dynamic world of hospitality!

King's School of Culinary Arts announces a highly advantageous degree pathway program in partnership with The Hotel School – Southern Cross University

What Does This Program Offer?

Graduates from King's will receive one-year credit at The Hotel School – Southern Cross University. This pathway program serves as a gateway to further elevate their expertise with a specialization in Hotel Management, Hospitality Management, Tourism Management or Event Management through the following process

Why Choose this Path?

Diverse Specializations :

Tailor your education to your specific interests and career goals

Career Advancement :

Achieve both prestigious academic credentials of a Bachelor's Degree and practical expertise through the Diploma course

Networking Advantages :

Gain a wide range of networking advantages by connecting with peers, alumni and industry professionals from multiple academic communities