Why Choose Us

Extracurricular Activities	ACCHS enhances social inclusion by organizing visits to museums, age care centre, and nursing homes, helping students understand Australian culture and aged care facilities.
Diverse Student Backgrounds	Students from around the world bring different perspectives, enhancing learning outcomes and allowing for a multicultural understanding of the nursing industry.
Location and Facilities	Located between Parramatta and Harris Park train stations with an additional campus in Sydney CBD, ACCHS offers comprehensive facilities including labs, libraries, rest areas, Wi-Fi, student computers, and ping pong tables for recreation.
Specialized Courses	The CIII Individual Support course includes specializations in aging and disability care. The Diploma of Community Service involves 400 hours of internship split between two different institutions, a rare offering among schools.
Certifications and Qualifications	All courses include first aid and handwashing certification training, which are not commonly provided by other schools.

Why Choose Us

Cultural Respect	ACCHS respects and promotes Australian Indigenous culture, educating students about understanding and respecting this culture.
Teaching Staff	The ACCHS teaching team includes registered nurses, community workers with NDIS qualifications, and those with experience in aged care, coming from diverse international backgrounds.
Work placement Network	ACCHS has a broad network of work placement locations, including large aged care facilities, small nursing homes, major charitable organizations, and community centres, offering a variety of choices for students.
Industry Collaboration	ACCHS regularly invites industry partners to share their experiences, enhancing students' understanding of the industry's practical applications and the societal significance of their studies.

“We warmly welcome both local (domestic) and international students to our college. To guarantee that our students are competent in using the latest tools utilized by businesses today, we have a dedicated teaching faculty that consists of skilled teachers who keep themselves up-to-date with the current industry standards. They are passionate about sharing their knowledge with the students.”
